

Release procedure

Before a release, these things should be done:

Create .apk

Test application functionality

Build approved by product owner

Push all working functionality to master

Tag last commit in master